

Core IMPACTS
Institutional Priority (Institution)
Syllabus Statement

The following text must appear in every syllabus for the following courses, beginning with the Spring 2024 semester:

GC1Y 1000 Critical Thinking
GC2Y 2000 Global Perspectives

This Core IMPACTS course is part of the Institutional Priority (Institution) area. Core IMPACTS is the University System of Georgia (USG) and GCSU core curriculum, which is designed to ensure that students acquire essential knowledge in foundational academic areas and develop career-ready competencies to support their broad academic and career goals.

This course should direct students toward this broad Orienting Question: How does my institution help me navigate the world?

Course content, activities and exercises in this course should help students develop the following Career-Ready Competencies: Critical Thinking, Teamwork, Time Management

Completion of this course should enable students to meet the following USG Core Learning Outcome: Students will demonstrate the ability to think critically and solve problems related to academic priorities at their institution.

Completion of this course will also enable students to meet the following GCSU Core Learning Outcome: Students will be able to explain multiple intellectual approaches that clarify or respond to problems, topics, themes, and/or issues.